Interested students apply and select a primary interest area for the four-week session.

Students selected will be expected to be present at all four sessions.

Student applications will be available about 2 months prior to each session.

VISIT http://wcpsmd.com/schools/high-schools/barbara-ingram-school-arts for updated information.

Student enrollments in each area, except instrumental music will be limited to 20 students. A lottery system will be used to select students when the applicants exceed enrollment limits. Instrumental music students will be selected from the six instrumental groups to promote a balanced ensemble.

There is no charge to participate in the BISFA Arts Exploration program.
