EXPECTATIONS

SUCCESSFUL ATTRIBUTES OF A BLENDED LEARNING STUDENT

To be successful as a blended learner, students should be self-motivated to direct their own learning and have consistent attendance patterns. These students display a level of maturity needed to collaborate with a blended learning teacher. Students must be able to meet syllabus timelines and be willing to ask for help or clarification as needed.

STUDENT EXPECTATIONS

- Maintain 95% daily attendance in all classes
- MIDDLE: synchronous 5 hours daily; asynchronous 1.5–2 hours daily
- Complete and submit lessons including daily attendance assignments
- Engage in the lesson
- Collaborate with classmates
- Remain logged on during all instruction
- Check Google Classroom and school email daily
- Use WCPS equipment as outlined in the Acceptable Use Policy
- Follow all WCPS policies and procedures including the WCPS Code of Conduct
- Contact teachers if additional support or clarification is needed
- Attend live in-person assessments

STUDENT VIRTUAL CLASSROOM/WORK SPACE

- Students will be required to have their cameras on and have a blurred background setting in Google Meet during synchronous instruction
- Students should have a quiet place to attend class
- Students will be expected to participate in classroom conversations
- Students should be fully dressed and in an appropriate quiet space in your home (laying on your bed or couch is not conducive to a positive learning environment)
- Students should avoid distracting movements or actions, when the camera is on
- Students should consider putting a “live” sign on your door so that family members know that you are actively engaged in class

PARENT/FAMILY

- Provide reliable internet that can be used for multiple hours each day
- Build a schedule and create structure and consistency for your child’s day – include time for meals, physical activity & down time
- Ensure students attend regularly
- Ensure students are physically present for mandatory state and local testing
- Encourage hard work
- Ensure a designated space is available for learning
- Review the learning platform and review student assignments and progress
- Communicate with teachers
- Check students progress on APEX and Google Classroom
- Contact the school if your child is sick and unable to attend
- Encourage students to stay in touch with friends
